POSTSECONDARY

STAR EVENTS OPPORTUNITIES

2012-2013

Postsecondary participants will have the opportunity to showcase their leadership and career preparation skills by participating in one of the following STAR Events:

- Advocacy – an individual or team event recognizing participants who demonstrate their knowledge, skills, and ability to actively identify a local, state, national, or global concern, research the topic, identify a target audience and potential partnerships, form an action plan, and advocate for the issue in an effort to positively affect a policy or law.

- Culinary Arts – a team event recognizing participants enrolled in occupational culinary arts/food service training programs for their ability to work as members of a team to produce a quality meal using industrial culinary arts/food service techniques and equipment.

- Early Childhood – an individual event recognizing participants who demonstrate their ability to use knowledge and skills gained from their enrollment in an early childhood program. Participants must prepare a portfolio and a resource container. On site, participants must plan and present to evaluators an activity related to the theme in response to a case study provided during the event and an oral presentation describing the activity.

- Teach and Train – an individual event recognizing participants for their exploration of the education and training fields through research and hands-on experience.

- Fashion Design – an individual event recognizes participants who apply fashion design skills learned in Family and Consumer Science courses to design and market clothing styles.

Event guidelines will be published in the Competitive Events section in the 2012-2013 Competitive Events Guide – www.fcclainc.org. For more information, contact starevents@fcclainc.org.
