

POP-UPS and Authenticated Web Applications

Internet Explorer (ie10)

- A. Far upper right, click on "Tools."

- B. Internet Options
C. Privacy tab
D. Popup blocker
1. Uncheck the box for popup blocker to be OFF.
 2. OR leave checkmark AND allow exceptions:
 - a. Click Settings.
 - i. Type in URL of site to allow (include the http:// or https:// (For authenticated apps, type in https://apps.ksde.org.)
 - ii. Click Add (or press Enter key).
 - iii. Click Close.
 3. Click OK.

Google Chrome

- A. Far upper right, just under red "x" button: Click "Customize and control Google Chrome" button.

- B. Click "Settings."
C. Click "Show advanced settings."
D. Scroll to "Privacy" section.
E. Click "Content Settings."
F. Pop-ups:
 - a. Click radio button for "Allow" or "Do not allow."
 - b. OR leave it on "Do not allow" AND click "Manage Exceptions."
 - i. Under "Hostname Pattern," type in URL of site to allow. Include the http:// or https://. (For authenticated apps, type in https://apps.ksde.org.)
 - ii. Under "Behavior," select "Allow" in the dropdown.
 - iii. Click Done (or press Enter key).
 - iv. Click Done.

Firefox

- A. Far upper right, just under red "x" button: Click "Open menu" button.

- B. Click on "Options."
C. In menu down left side, click "Content."
D. Uncheck "Block pop-up windows"
E. OR leave it checked AND click "Exceptions."
 - a. Type in URL of site to allow. Include the http:// or https://. (For authenticated apps, type in https://apps.ksde.org.)
 - b. Click "Allow."
 - c. Click "Save Changes."